Janeway and Co. Get a Judgment for $179,806 Against the Pennsylvania Company.

HIGH UP.

The Great Electric Light Tower at Paris.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

PARIS, April 24.—An iron tower, 984 feet high, is to be erected on the grounds of the Paris international exposition. It will be supported by four pillars which will be higher than the magnificent towers of the cathedral of Notre Dame, which has an altitude of 225 feet. The structure will cost one million dollars, and be surmounted by a powerful electric light that will be visible, it is believed, for 197 miles around.

BIG FIGURES.

The Pennsylvania Company Lose a Heavy Suit.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

TRENTON, N. J., April 24.—In the case of Janeway & Co., of New Brunswick, against the Pennsylvania railroad, in which over $200,000 damages were claimed, the jury gave a verdict for plaintiff for $179,806 for the loss of both property and trade. The suit arose out of a collision at New Brunswick February 7, 1885, of an oil and freight train. The fire resulting therefrom burned Janeway's wall paper factory.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—On motion of Mr. Weaver, of Nebraska, the bill passed authorizing the Covington and Cincinnati Elevated Railroad and Bridge company to erect a bridge across the Ohio river.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The News Near as Put in a Readable Way.

A new Catholic church is to be built in Elkhart this summer, the cost to be $18,000.

It is said that Hon. G. V. Menzies, of Mount Vernon, will be a candidate for congress in the first congressional district.

We received the first number of the Labor World, a paper devoted to the interest of Knights of Labor and published at Lafayette. Mr. Arthur Williams is at the head of the concern.

Professor D. W. Thomas, for nearly fourteen years past superintendent of the Wabash public schools, has just accepted a flattering offer to serve in a like capacity at Elkhart. He will receive a salary of $1,600 at Elkhart.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Lagrange democratic convention, on the 10th inst., in honor of Hon. Andrew Ellison: "Resolved, That in the person of Hon. Andrew Ellison the democracy of our county have had an efficient, tried, trusted and able leader, and with his leadership our minority has been right and our cause advanced, by honest and energetic effort. His aid has been given liberally, and he merits for his action the unanimous approval of this convention as representative of the feelings of the democracy of our county."

The state board of health held a meeting yesterday at Indianapolis. The sanitary condition of the state was discussed at some length. Reports from all quarters revealed no malignant or alarming diseases. Some scarlet fever prevails, but it is believed now to be well under control. The board, however, deemed it advisable to take the usual spring precautions, and the secretary was instructed to prepare circulars for distribution among municipal and county officers; also to railroad officials and to all others concerned, directing them to make all needful preparations to ward off cholera and all summer diseases.

PERSONAL MENTION.

It is stated by a Rhode Island paper that since Ex-Governor Sprague's last marriage there has been a marked improvement in his personal conduct and financial standing.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine, with Gail Hamilton, and accompanied by Mr. William Walter Phelps, have gone to Bar Harbor. This is an early discounting of the summer season, but Mr. Blaine has a new cottage to open, and the weather up that way may yet warrant a house warming.

Geraniums only fifty cents a dozen, all in full bloom, at the New Green Houses, corner of Erie and Harmer streets.

HON. A. P. EDGERTON.

He Points to the Excellence of the Civil Service System and Says It Is Indorsed.

"Hon. A. P. Edgerton, civil service commissioner, was engaged in a quiet game of 'California Jack,' with his venerable friend, Judge Patton, of Ohio, last evening at the Palmer house, when the Times reporter called upon him," says the Chicago Times. "The game was gracefully suspended and the gentleman very pleasantly gave his views upon the operation of the civil service law as thus far tried. Mr. Edgerton stated that there could be no possible doubt of the excellence of the system, and already the departments at Washington and the government offices throughout the country, were filled with a better class of clerks than had ever been the case before. Mr. Cleveland was firmly and conscientiously committed to its operation and insisted on its rigid enforcement. To-day members of congress, heads of departments and the vast body of the general public indorsed the system, which was being carried out more faithfully by President Cleveland than ever before. Being asked about the charges recently made against Pension Commissioner Black that he was gradually filling the pension office with democrats, Mr. Edgerton did not see now such a charge could stand, but he knew that when congress passed the law in 1884 to employ 150 extra examiners in the pension office the commissioner certified to Commissioner Dudley a list of 405 persons who had passed examinations for that department. Whether it was accident or good guessing, Mr. Edgerton did not know, but it was afterward found that the entire 150 examiners appointed were republicans. When Mr. Black desired to make appointments, the old and unexhausted list was sent up to him, and perhaps there was a preponderance of democrats upon it, because none had succeeded in obtaining positions under Mr. Dudley. Seriously, however, he could not see how any such charge could be substantiated at the present time. The examinations were all made without regard to politics, and in fact without my knowledge of the politics of the applicants. In some departments there was at the present a scarcity of applicants who had passed successful examinations, and they were at a loss to fill some of the places. Appointments were being made daily by the various departments, but he did not see that any great sweep had been made, or that many heads had been taken off. Those who complained most of the failure to slaughter the appointees by wholesale would eventually see the benefits of the system and applaud it. 'Bishop' Oberly, he thought, would make a very conservative commissioner, notwithstanding his active party affiliations in Illinois."

VERY COMPLIMENTARY.

The Grand Jurors Pay Their Respects to the Jail and County Asylum.

The grand jurors, composed of six representative citizens, sent their communications to Judge O'Rourke yesterday.

To Hon. E. O'Rourke, Judge:

The grand jury respectfully report that they have visited the jail of Allen county and found everything in and about that institution in good order. The prison fare is good and wholesome, the sanitary condition of prisoners well looked after, the jail safe as a place for confinement of prisoners, and in short, so far as we could see, we found much to praise and nothing to condemn in the management of this institution. We think about the jail is well managed in all respects.

M. Cony, Foreman.

To Hon. E. O'Rourke, Judge: The grand jury would respectfully report that we have personally visited the county asylum and found the superintendent absent. We were, however, shown over and about the institution and freely allowed access to all parts thereof. We report that we found everything neat, clean and in excellent condition. We were over the farm and examined the stock building and crops. We are pleased to report that all about it is in good order and the crops thereon look very fine. In short we are well pleased with the management of this important public institution.

M. Cony, Foreman.

A Fair Correction.

Lagrange county will have two sets of delegates to the congressional convention. Andy Ellison's county convention met and selected delegates. The regular county convention has been called to meet in Lagrange to-morrow, by Chairman John Kimmel. The Lagrange county democrats will all support the regular congressional nominee.

If the exchange editor ever runs across the above item again he will let it alone. There are hundreds of democrats here ready to prove that the first convention was the regular democratic affair and that Mr. Kimmel's is only a side show. Two communications are at hand to assert that Mr. Kimmel is not the regular democratic committeeman and has no authority to call a convention to-day. THE SENTINEL takes no sides in this dispute.

CRIMINAL.

Sinners Sentenced and Two More Arrested.

Doctor Selover, the sanctimonious express driver, was arrested to-day on a grand jury indictment charging him with cruelty to his horse. He gave bond and is at large. Henry Pantlind was arrested this morning on a charge of fornication. He gave security for his appearance when wanted.

Jimmy Meehan was arraigned before Judge O'Rourke for petit larceny. He was sent to jail for twenty days. Fred Madden, who was charged similarly, was let go on promise of good behavior. Billy Tine and Ed. Monahan were fined $5 each and given twenty days in jail for riot. They stole cigars from Ehle and otherwise behaved badly.

THE WAY TO CHURCH.

Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy.

You are invited to attend the Easter service to-morrow at the Simpson M. E. church. Sabbath school at 2:30 p. m.

An invitation is given to all to attend the gospel and song service at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sabbath afternoon, at 8:30 standard.

You are invited to Grace Reformed church, East Washington street. Morning topic, "Easter Thoughts." Evening subject, "The Grace of Mercifulness." Come, you are welcome.

Trinity church, Rev. W. N. Webb, rector. Easter day, April 25. Order of services: 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 10:45 a. m., sermon and holy communion; 7:30 p. m., Sunday school celebration. A beautiful and striking object lesson will be one of the attractions at this service. All are cordially invited.

At the Cathedral to-morrow—Easter Sunday—the Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger will pontificate, and will be attended by all the clergy of his household as is customary in the ritual of the Catholic church on great festivals. The church and altars will be richly decorated and brilliantly illuminated. The following selections will be sung by the choir: "Kyrie," by Gounod; "Gloria," by Gounod; "Veni Sancte Spiritus," by Plotow; "Credo," by Gounod; Offertory: "Regina Coele," by Cherubini; "Sanctus," by Gounod; "Benedictus," by Gounod; "Agnus Dei," by Gounod. The choir has carefully rehearsed the mass and the musical productions will be of an exceptionally fine order. Mr. John Mohr, jr., will preside at the organ and Professor Noll will be choir director. The services begin at 10:30 a. m. At the vesper services the choir will render Mercadante's "Magnificat," Cherubini's "Regina Coele," Curschman's "O Salutaris," Goebe's "Tantum Ergo."

BIG BILLS.

T. E. Ellison Gets $6,000 Fee in the Little River Ditch.

Judge Haynes allowed the bills in the Little River ditch case yesterday. T. E. Ellison put in a claim for $6,000 for legal services and getting up the petition. This was allowed. Morris & Barrett, who were also attorneys in the ditch case for the petitioners, put in a bill for $1,000. Mr. Ellison got another allowance of $27.25 for expenses at Huntington, and Brannan, Spencer, Kaufman and Brannan, attorneys in the case, asked for and received $250. There were other claims, ranging from a hundred dollars down. Mr. Ellison's fee is the largest ever recorded here, and the people along the line of the Little River ditch must pay it.

THE DEATHS.

The List for the Week Not Large.

The death list for the week is as follows: John Bender, 87 years, old age; Ferdin and Galmeyer, 24 years, croup; Mrs. Theodore Gotsch, 26 years, consumption; Elizabeth Leek, aged 87 years, cancer; Herman Horstman, 25 years, consumption; William McD. Kinnaird, 21 years, consumption; Howard Vilvick, 24 years, measles; Katie Burley, 88 years, dropsy; Henry J. Snively, 63 years, consumption; Frank Meyers, 30 years, killed on railroad; Magdalene Bender, 61 years, dropsy.

The Indicted Lake Shore Switchmen Acquitted—The Strikers Lost the Fight.

The Orangemen and Catholics of Glasgow Indulge in a Vicious Fight.

LET GO.

The Indicted Lake Shore Switchmen.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 24.—The cases against the Lake Shore switchmen, held over until to-day, were dismissed for want of prosecution.

A SURRENDER.

CHICAGO, April 24.—President Newell, of the Lake Shore, says there was no agreement to remove objectionable switchmen; that the strikers made a complete surrender in view of the penalties they would incur by carrying on their method of interfering with business.

THE STRIKES FIGURED UP.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—It is estimated by Joseph D. Weeks, labor statistician, that there are now 762 strikes in progress in this country, and that the number of men idle in consequence is 128,262. Mr. Weeks' report says: "As to wages lost, it appears that 64,779 employees lost $3,711,027. This would be at the rate of $57 each. As the entire number of employees estimated was 128,136, the total loss of wages would be $13,002,866, which would have been received had the works run constantly."

THE OLD GRUDGE.

Orangemen and Catholics Have a Fight.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

GLASGOW, April 24.—A collision between the Orange and Catholic roughs occurred after holding a loyalist meeting here yesterday. Four arrests were made. Later, the Orange mob attacked a Catholic chapel crowded with worshippers and smashed all the windows. The few police who were present, were powerless. The priest conducting the services in the chapel, ordered the doors locked and thus prevented the mob doing further mischief.

ITALIANS

Are Roasted in a Wrecked Hut.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BRADFORD, Pa., April 24.—A frame building at Alton, erected on posts and used as sleeping quarters for laborers, tipped over at 1 o'clock this morning and caught fire from a stove. The building contained thirty-eight Italians in the employ of the Erie railway. Six were burned in a horrible manner and three others were badly injured.

Big Suits.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 24.—The McCormick Harvesting Machine company has a suit pending for $1,000,000 damages for infringement of the Goham patents against the Walter A. Wood Mower company of Hooisick Falls, N. Y. Recently a stranger purchased from Mrs. Helen Goham the original Goham machine, paying therefor $280.

Big Death List.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

VIENNA, April 24.—The total number of deaths resulting from the conflagration which recently devastated the town of Stry is 120. The burgomaster estimates that it will cost at least $1,200,000 to rebuild the burned houses.

Shot Dead.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PORT HURON, Mich., April 24.—Henry W. Smith, while drunk was mistaken for a burglar and shot dead by J. C. Weisel.

A Good Oil Well.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURG, April 21.—Telegrams from Washington, Pa., reports that the Thayer well which started off at a 1,400 barrel per day rate is doing 56 barrels an hour to-day.

In the habeas corpus case of Cora Lee, charged with complicity in the murder of Mrs. Graham, Judge Wallace, at Bolivar, Mo., Friday admitted her to bail in $5,000. Judge Baker, it is stated, will provide the bonds.

Miss Francis S. Folsom, who is alleged, will be married to President Cleveland in June, will sail for home May 18, an announcement which has revived in the east the story of orange blossoms in the white house.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. Shutt was up at Avilla to-day. Mary Lohmeyer sues Ransom E. French to quit title.

Rhea Levinay sues Frederick Barrett sues on a note for $400.

The Equitable Insurance company Phillip Kinze on a foreclosure. A. C. F. Weichman was at Kendallville to-day. Mr. Weichman will run for county treasurer.

Ernest Wicking, of Bluffton, passed through the city yesterday en route to Germany to see his relatives.

W. S. Bash has taken out a permit to erect a two-story brick house on lot 206 Rockhill's addition, at a cost of $2,500.

Fred. Hollenbeck will go to Europe with his wife on a three months visit, after he quits as Wabash baggage master, May 1.

The Deuber Watch Case company is getting a good deal of free advertising by making proposals to locate in a hundred different cities.

The Catholic Knights of St. John run an excursion to Cincinnati, June 26. The Arion society goes to Milwaukee about the same time.

James and Fred Horstmeier, who live near the organ factory, were arrested by Constable Cook, for fishing with a net. Justice France fined them.

John Snyder and Mary Armstrong, Commodore Wood and Elizabeth Marrow have been licensed to wed. Commodore is not unknown to fame.

Mr. C. L. Centlivre, the great brewer, has a page ad. in THE SENTINEL to-day. This institution ranks with the best in the land, and his announcements will startle the trade. See if it don't.

James and Sarah Mayhew, who live out on the St. Joe road, will be arrested for keeping filth on their lot in Gooseville. Mrs. Mayhew is at the point of death and cannot come in, but James will be fined.

George Platter was arrested to-day for hugging his lovely cousin, from Garrett, and will have a hearing next Friday before Esquire Ryan. Mrs. Weaver is an exquisite creature, and George was justified in squeezing her a little bit.

Rufus A. Evans, of the Lake Shore freight office, has accepted the Fort Wayne agency for the Equitable Life Assurance society of New York. Mr. Buck, who for many years has represented the society at this place, will represent the society at Indianapolis.

Will P. Gordon, the depot express agent, received a carrier pigeon from East Liberty, Ohio, last night, with instructions to let it go this morning. He let it fly at 6 o'clock, and after a circle or two, the pretty blue bird made a bee line for East Liberty. Quite a crowd witnessed its departure.

Hon. W. G. Colerick announces himself elsewhere as a candidate for congress. At the bar, on the bench and in the halls of congress Mr. Colerick has distinguished himself. Every elevation won new laurels for as fair and brilliant a man as Indiana can boast of, and his record as a democrat is as old as he is.

Moody is still in the south doing much good. He has joined the Christian people of that section together as one body. He has persuaded them to throw away their creeds and go to work for Christ. He says a Christian has no use for a creed. He should believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and feel at home wherever Christians dwell.

Mr. P. Parker, the gas well man, of Findlay, Ohio, was in the city this morning, having returned with Hon. R. C. Bell from Eaton, where he made an examination of the gas well at that place. He thinks it will be a good paying well. While here he made an examination of the dirt taken from the artesian well. At a depth of 1,900 feet he discovered some oil bearing rock, though the surroundings are not very encouraging for gas. He thinks it is worth experimenting with, and advises that a glycerine cartridge be exploded at the depth where the oil bearing rock is found. He says if there is any gas there it will then make its appearance. He thinks Eastern Indians and Western Ohio will in time be the greatest oil producing country in the United States.

City Democratic Primaries.

At a meeting of the democratic city central committee it was decided that the primaries be held at the usual voting places on May 1, 1886, from 4 to 7 o'clock in the afternoon for the nomination of one councilman in each ward, and to nominate on water works trustees.

A HEROIC TRAMP.

Saves Two Hundred People From an Awful Fate.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 24.—An unknown tramp saved the night express on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, and nearly two hundred passengers, from an awful fate, last night, by heroism and presence of mind. He was walking up the track on a mountain delf, when he found a large steer wedged in a cattle guard on the track in such a way that it would certainly have wrecked the train. The tramp heard the night express thundering through the mountains. He lighted a torch and stopped it just before reaching the obstruction. He was handsomely rewarded.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

A Farmer's Quarrel Results in a Foul Murder.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BLANCHESTER, O., April 24.—Thomas Bowman was murdered last evening by Henry Kregler, near Middleboro, eight miles from here. They were neighbors. Yesterday Bowman had Kregler arrested for destroying a fence. After an examination before a justice they started home, Kregler ahead. He hid in a clump of bushes by the roadside, and when Bowman and his son came along, he fired four bullets into his body, one entering the heart and killing him instantly. Bowman's son grappled with Kregler, but was struck with the pistol and badly hurt. Kregler escaped.

High Rates.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 24.—The Union Pacific railway officials have issued a circular announcing an advance in freight rates to 50 per cent. of the old tariff.

CAUGHT UP.

Items Gathered by Induction Along the Wabash.

The Wabash has a contract to haul two thousand loads of coal for the Baltimore and Ohio from Indianapolis to Auburn Junction. As the arrangement was made but recently it does not indicate that the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and Wabash will change interests very soon.

George W. Stevens is a hard man to interview. He is pleasant, talks readily, but gives away no secrets, and would make his mark in the political field. One of these days he will be president of the Wabash or some other large railroad, mark the prediction.

The court has decided that the two million bonds on the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago are legal, which places the road nearly in the control of the Wabash. The cutting bonds will now be of much value to whoever wishes to own the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago.

Boycotting Sunday Papers.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—The city ministers, headed by Bishop Bedell, of the Episcopal church, are preparing to boycott the Sunday secular newspapers. Confidential circulars have been issued to clergymen, and all have been urged to join the movement and denounce Sunday papers from their pulpits on May 2.

The New York Times says: "Joseph played as his last number the Liszt Concerto No. 2, one of the most difficult and therefore most rarely heard compositions of the great master. Nothing more astonishing as an exhibition of pianism has been heard in this country, not excepting the most astonishing performances of Rubenstein and von Bulow."

The New Green Houses are open to visitors every Sunday.

THE MARKETS.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1886.

THE CITY.

This is Holy Saturday. It's time to darn up the moth holes in hammocks.

The museum of anatomy closes its engagement here to-night.

Hon. A. H. Hamilton is at New York City, accompanied by his daughter.

Mr. W. D. Page and party have returned from a pleasant stay at Rome City.

Miss Chapin, of Fort Wayne, was at LaOtto Tuesday to organize a class in instrumental music.

Rev. Sam Jones is to appear at the Island Park Assembly platform, August 4th, temperance day.

The fare to the I. O. O. F. celebration at Wabash, Monday, has been reduced to $1.50 for the round trip.

"Miss Lillie Henry, a Fort Wayne society lady, was in town over Sunday," says the Winchester Democrat.

Col. C. A. Zollinger returned to Indianapolis at 8 o'clock last evening. The colonel shows the marks of hard work.

Nick Grew, of Fort Wayne, has purchased and taken possession of the Brick-er property, south of Swan, Ind., this week.

County Auditor Greibelsues Margaret and Thomas Kelly on a school fund foreclosure, or $600. Coombs, Bell & Morris are the attorneys.

Congressman Lowry sends THE SENTINEL a copy of the speech of Senator Voorhees on the "Right and Duty of the President to Make Removals from Office."

Dr. A. J. Rauch electioneers in the pure Quaker tongue. He shakes the farmer's hand in the robust Quaker fashion and adds "How art thee and thine."

Fred Bineker for fishing with a dip net was fined $10 and costs by Justice France. It is getting rather costly to violate the fish law, besides, a man who uses a seine or dip net is too small to live in this community.

Dr. J. M. Dinnen tells us the name of the deformed peddler, killed on the Pittsburgh road night before last, is Frank Meyers. He came from Detroit and his mangled remains will be interred at Lindenwood in Potter's field. He has no friends.

Mr. Frank H. Wolke has tendered his resignation as bookkeeper for C. L. Centlivre, and Ed Franks succeeds him. Mr. Wolke will devote his time to the manufacture of the washing machine in which he and Fred C. Boltz are interested and in which there is a fortune or two.

Eli Snyder, a sporting man, who is interested in a "game" here, was forty years old yesterday, and went to Warsaw to observe the event. The Times of that place says he was serenaded by the Warsaw band and gave a reception, not forgetting to give the printers a box of Havanas.

Rev. H. A. Hellhake, of Columbia City, has been appointed by Right Rev. Bishop Dwenger, of Fort Wayne, to the pastorate at Remington, Jasper county. He will be succeeded at Columbia City by Rev. A. M. Ellerling, who has been attending Warsaw and Pierceton. Arcola having become vacant by the death of Father Twigg, will be in charge of Rev. J. A. Welein.

It may interest our busy housewives at this season to know that the Relief union keep at their room, 64 West Main street, a list of names and addresses of women who want house cleaning and a day's work to do. The rooms are open daily from 10 a. m. till noon, where Mrs. Eckles who is in charge will gladly give any information to those desiring such service.

The city council meets in regular session next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dr. McGraw, of Toledo, the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Keil, of West Superior street.

Hon. Andy Ellison, of Lagrange, was in the city last evening. Mr. Ellison is en route to Kentucky, his new home.

It will cost John Fleishman $18 for fishing with a dip-net at Edmond's dam. Fleishman stayed Justice Ryan's judgment, but will have to settle later.

The sheriff of Berrien county, Mich., wrote that he would be here last Friday after John W. Smith, the Huntington bigamist, but failed to come. Smith could be prosecuted in Michigan.

Dr. J. S. Seaton, the revenue collector, is notifying interested persons to make a return to Uncle Sam of their special tax. If this is not done before April 30, he must levy a penalty of 50 per cent.

"Mr. Thomas Foley, train dispatcher of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway company, at Fort Wayne, was in the city last Sunday, the guest of a friend," says the Van Wert Bulletin.

Supt. George W. Stevens said, yesterday, that the Wabash company had resolved to build an elevator at Huntington. It will be placed a little east of the burned building, and will be about the same size.

Willie Bryant, a boy aged fourteen years, small of stature, who resides at 34 Summit street, disappeared Monday morning. Bryant, let's see. He may be employed at the Wayne township assessor's office.

"Ben Bell, a fat conductor on the Nickel Plate railway from Bellevue to Fort Wayne, is a very genial and accommodating gentleman, as all will conclude who ride on his train," says the Paulding Democrat.

The New York Sun devotes a half column editorial to satisfactorily prove that Judge Holman should be returned to congress from Indiana. The judge is an uncle of Hons. A. H. and Montgomery Hamilton, of this city.

United States Marshal Hawkins, of this district, must summon witnesses in rebuttal of the testimony offered by Senator Weir and others, from LaPorte, against him at Washington. His confirmation is now regarded as doubtful.

"This morning, P. H. Zahn sold a fine buggy to Dr. Emery Stults, of Fort Wayne. Mr. Zahn has built up a fine trade and it speaks well for him that he sells in our neighboring towns and cities. The buggy was shipped to Fort Wayne to-day," says the Huntington Herald.

"Messdames D. A. Purviance and E. K. Albaugh made a visit to Fort Wayne to-day.—Harry Medsker, the Fort Wayne confectioner, called on his friends here this morning.—Dr. Emery Stults, of Fort Wayne, who has been here a day or two, returned home on the noon train to-day," says the Huntington Herald.

The Warsaw Times, is urging that city to celebrate the Fourth of July with a sham naval battle on the lake adjoining the city. The fight between the Kearsage and the Alabama is suggested for a model, as good descriptions of it have been given recently. Fort Wayne people talk of running an excursion up there then.

Petitions from all along the line of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad pour in to Superintendent Law, requesting that official to again put on the accommodation trains that a few months since ran between Crestline and Fort Wayne. The trains were a great convenience to the patrons of the road all along the line.

The Northern Indiana Teachers' association will meet at Lake Maxenkuckee, July 30 and 31, and August 1. A program has been arranged that includes a number of papers from prominent educators, and the meeting of the association promises to be an unusually interesting one. Many of the teachers of this city will attend the meeting of the association.

Judge Haynes, of Portland, concluded the consideration of the Little river ditch yesterday by appointing Mr. Ed. Ely, of St. Joe township, superintendent of construction on the big drain. Mr. Ely will collect the assessments and make payments to contractors. It is expected that the letting of contracts will occur in July. The estimated benefits of the ditch amount to $300,000.

Mrs. Wells, of Westminster seminary, Miss Anna Lowry and Miss Sophie Keil, returned from Indianapolis last evening, where they attended the meeting of the Woman's Presbyterian Missionary convention of the northwest. Mrs. Clark, of Franklin, made the report for Indiana. During the year there have been five societies and four Sunday schools newly organized, but a number of new ones had not been reported. The eight synodical secretaries reported that 486 of the subscribers to the foreign missions, 446 to woman's work, and 279 to children's work were found in the state. Six of the presbyteries reported an increase in collections during the year, Muncie showing an increase of 20 per cent., while New Albany and Indianapolis had fallen off. The total collections for the year were $9,257.26, an increase of $223 over the last year.

The officers and teachers of the three Presbyterian Sabbath schools meet this evening at the Second Presbyterian church.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Clearing, slightly cooler weather.

The Leonzo brothers give their last performance at the Academy to-night, appearing in "The Hunter's Dogs" which was given at the matinee this afternoon with great success.

"Kiser's gang of painters have completed their work here and this week go to Fort Wayne, where the shops of the company are to be 'rejuvenated,'" says the Huntington News-Express.

Mrs. Gottlieb Brudi, of Adams township, who was so brutally assaulted by a tramp, is lying at the point of death. The last sacraments of the Catholic church were administered to her yesterday.

Mrs. Bender, mother-in-law of John Work, of the gas works, died last night at her home, 275 East Washington street. She was sixty years of age and will be buried Monday, at 9 a. m., from the Cathedral.

The passenger rates to California are gradually advancing and the freight rates will probably be restored to tariff on Monday next. The lines concerned begin to talk once more of the reorganization of the Trans-continental pool.

City Clerk Rockhill has notified all interested people to remove bodies from the Broadway cemetery. Quite a number have replied to bury the headstones under ground and leave the ashes rest. One of these requests came from Lizzie B. Read, of Algona, Iowa, and will be granted.

The council committee on parks looked over the public domain yesterday and decided to at once beautify the McCulloch park and later decorate the property around the pumping house and reservoir. An effort will be made to secure for park purposes the triangular strip of ground in front of W. D. Page's residence, in the east end.

The full program of the Northern Indiana Editorial association is now published. It differs not from the outline given in THE SENTINEL some time ago. These numbers are of interest here: "The Local Paper of the Future," The-ron P. Keator, of the Fort Wayne Gazette. "The Duty of the Public to the Press," Col. I. B. McDonald, of the Fort Wayne Journal.

Wallace King, the phenomenal tenor, is with Kersand's minstrels; also, Billy Wilson, the young comedian; Ed. Johnson, the baritone, and numerous other favorites. The singing of the double sextette is highly commended. The Zouave drill and the black clog are also interesting features. They will undoubtedly give as fine a performance as has ever been seen in Fort Wayne.

May 12 and 13 the board of bishops of the United Brethren church will meet for a conference at Roanoke, just west of the city a few miles. There are six active bishops in the church, and Bishop Glossbrenner, who for forty years has held the office, and has been made a bishop emeritus, and all will be present, with the exception of Bishop Flickinger, who is now in Europe. The meeting of the Woman's Missionary board of the United Brethren church of the United States, convenes at Huntington May 19 and 20. Fort Wayne will be represented at both meetings.

A question of great interest to local ticket brokers arises from the sale of the Wabash next Monday. During the great rate war of 1880, $250,000 worth of tickets were issued by the Wabash company. The tickets were bought up with avidity, $10,000 alone going to Toledo. After the war the tickets, which had been held by the scalpers, were redeemed by the company at $4.70. The brokers held out for the full rate, $8.50, which was refused. A short time after the Wabash went into the hands of a receiver, and it was decided for this reason the tickets were not redeemable. The tickets were repudiated, and are still on the market, and the question arises, "Are the tickets good when the road is sold?"

EGGSACTLY.

Easter and the Legends That Make the Day Remarkable—The Notable Dates of the Occasion.

Easter Sunday is to-morrow, the latest date it can come on again for a century. In the Christian churches it is a day of rejoicing, to commemorate the resurrection of Christ. It is regarded as an occasion for sinners to return to grace and make peace with God. The church services are marked with great solemnity and devotion.

Another feature is the custom of presenting colored eggs, styled pasch or pace eggs. The Easter eggs or pasch eggs are symbolical of creation, or the recreation of spring. The practice of presenting eggs at Easter is Maglon or Persian, and bears allusion to the mande egg, from which Ormuzd and Ari-mand were to contend till the consummation of all things. It prevailed not only with the Persians, but also among the Jews, Egyptians and Hindus. Christians adopted the custom to symbolize the resurrection, and they color the eggs red in allusion to the blood of their redemption. There is a tradition, also, that the world was hatched or created at Easter tide.

This year Easter falls on April 25, or nearly a month after the beginning of the second quarter of the year. Such a case has not happened in this century, and will not occur again. In the next century, the twentieth, Easter will fall on April 25 in 1943. If we turn back to previous centuries, we find that such a late date for Easter occurs only once in each century, that is, 1734, 1766, 1545, 1451; the fourteenth century goes without such a late date; 1204, 1109, 1014, 919. The earliest date for Easter, March 22, has occurred only once in this century, in 1818, and it will not recur before A. D. 2000. The earliest day for Easter has occurred in 1761, 1693, 1598 and 1573, 1478, and 1383; the thirteenth century is passed over; 1136, 1041, 946. It is interesting to note how Easter will distribute itself up to A. D. 2000. In the present century Easter will fall only twice more in March, on the 29th, in 1891, and on the 25th, in 1894. Of the remaining twelve years of this century, five Easter days fall in the first week in April (in 1888, on April 1; 1893 and 1899 on April 2, 1896 on April 5, 1890 on April 6), and three in the second week (in 1887 and 1898 on April 10, and in 1895 on April 14), and four in the third week (in 1900 on April 15, 1892 on April 17, 1877 on April 18, 1889 on April 21). As indicated above, the last week in April, with the exception of 1886, is not represented again in this century by an Easter day.

Colerick is a Candidate for Congress.

To the Democratic Voters of Allen County: I am a candidate for congress, and my name will be presented to the democratic congressional convention, to be held at Auburn, May 13. It will be gratifying to me if my friends in the different wards and townships attend the meetings to be held on Saturday, May 1, and use their influence in securing the selection of delegates to the congressional convention who will favor my nomination.

Editor Mitchell on His 3,000 Petition.

Fort Wayne Dispatch. The Congressional Record for April 10th, 1886, says Senator Harrison presented the petition of ten officers and members of the Fort Wayne assemblies of the Knights of Labor in favor of the arbitration bill. The Fort Wayne Gazette says the petition had 3,000 signatures, but then the Gazette's figures are often decidedly peculiar. The great majority of the Knights of Labor of Fort Wayne take no more stock in the arbitration bill than they do in Senator Harrison.

To-morrow's issue will be a notable number. A large engraving of the new First Presbyterian church, with a history of the congregation; a magnificently illustrated Easter article, superbly illustrated society and dramatic departments, illustrated articles by Bill Nye and the humorist of the Detroit Free Press. The "Growler" will have a page. Full report by special reporters of the Mcquerville prize fight and an unusual amount of interesting local matters will make this a number one that every citizen of Fort Wayne should have. Orders for extra copies are already over 2,000 above the ordinary edition. Advertisers will take notice. Members and friends of the First church who desire this souvenir should leave orders for extra copies early.

SOLDIERS ORGANIZE.

Another Tri-State Veteran Association Incorporated.

This morning the Tri-State Veteran association filed articles of incorporation with County Recorder Heller. The organization applies to Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, and is open to all union soldiers and sailors on the payment of an annual fee of 50 cents. The society is to give a reunion annually in one of the states named. No officer gets pay but the secretary and treasurer. The society is incorporated to oppose Dr. Young's veteran association. The incorporators are Capt. Scott Swann, Col. Tom Sullivan, Capt. James Harper, and Col. C. A. Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, and Capt. John E. Tyrrell, of Jackson, Mich.

The Great Electric Light Tower at Paris.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

PARIS, April 24.—An iron tower, 984 feet high, is to be erected on the grounds of the Paris international exposition. It will be supported by four pillars which will be higher than the magnificent towers of the cathedral of Notre Dame, which has an altitude of 225 feet. The structure will cost one million dollars, and be surmounted by a powerful electric light that will be visible, it is believed, for 197 miles around.

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., April 24.—In the case of Janeway & Co., of New Brunswick, against the Pennsylvania railroad, in which over $200,000 damages were claimed, the jury gave a verdict for plaintiff for $179,806 for the loss of both property and trade. The suit arose out of a collision at New Brunswick February 7, 1885, of an oil and freight train. The fire resulting therefrom burned Janeway's wall paper factory.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The News Near as Put in a Readable Way.

A new Catholic church is to be built in Elkhart this summer, the cost to be $18,000.

It is said that Hon. G. V. Menzies, of Mount Vernon, will be a candidate for congress in the first congressional district.

We received the first number of the Labor World, a paper devoted to the interest of Knights of Labor and published at Lafayette. Mr. Arthur Williams is at the head of the concern.

Professor D. W. Thomas, for nearly fourteen years past superintendent of the Wabash public schools, has just accepted a flattering offer to serve in a like capacity at Elkhart. He will receive a salary of $1,600 at Elkhart.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Lagrange democratic convention, on the 10th inst., in honor of Hon. Andrew Ellison: "Resolved, That in the person of Hon. Andrew Ellison the democracy of our county have had an efficient, tried, trusted and able leader, and with his leadership our minority has been right and our cause advanced, by honest and energetic effort. His aid has been given liberally, and he merits for his action the unanimous approval of this convention as representative of the feelings of the democracy of our county."

The state board of health held a meeting yesterday at Indianapolis. The sanitary condition of the state was discussed at some length. Reports from all quarters revealed no malignant or alarming diseases. Some scarlet fever prevailed, but it is believed now to be well under control. The board, however, desired it advisable to take the usual spring precautions, and the secretary was instructed to prepare circulars for distribution among municipal and county officers; also to railroad officials and to all others concerned, directing them to make all needful preparations to ward off cholera and all summer diseases.

PERSONAL MENTION.

It is stated by a Rhode Island paper that since Ex-Governor Sprague's last marriage there has been a marked improvement in his personal conduct and financial standing.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine, with Gail Hamilton, and accompanied by Mr. William Walter Phelps, have gone to Bar Harbor. This is an early discounting of the summer season, but Mr. Blaine has a new cottage to open, and the weather up that way may yet warrant a house warming.

Geraniums only fifty cents a dozen, all in full bloom, at the New Green Houses, corner of Erie and Harmer streets.

HON. A. P. EDGERTON.

He Points to the Excellence of the Civil Service System and Says It Is Indorsed.

"Hon. A. P. Edgerton, civil service commissioner, was engaged in a quiet game of 'California Jack,' with his venerable friend, Judge Patton, of Ohio, last evening at the Palmer house, when the Times reporter called upon him," says the Chicago Times. "The game was gracefully suspended and the gentleman very pleasantly gave his views upon the operation of the civil service law as thus far tried. Mr. Edgerton stated that there could be no possible doubt of the excellence of the system, and already the departments at Washington and the government offices throughout the country, were filled with a better class of clerks than had ever been the case before. Mr. Cleveland was firmly and conscientiously committed to its operation and insisted on its rigid enforcement. To-day members of congress, heads of departments and the vast body of the general public indorsed the system, which was being carried out more faithfully by President Cleveland than ever before. Being asked about the charges recently made against Pension Commissioner Black that he was gradually filling the pension office with democrats, Mr. Edgerton did not see how such a charge could stand, but he knew that when congress passed the law in 1854 to employ 150 extra examiners in the pension office the commissioner certified to Commissioner Dredley a list of 405 persons who had passed examinations for that department. Whether it was accident or good guessing, Mr. Edgerton did not know, but it was afterward found that the entire 150 examiners appointed were republicans. When Mr. Black desired to make appointments, the old and unexhausted list was sent up to him, and perhaps there was a preponderance of democrats upon it, because none had succeeded in obtaining positions under Mr. Dudley. Seriously, however, he could not see how any such charge could be substantiated at the present time. The examinations were all made without regard to politics, and in fact without any knowledge of the politics of the applicants. In some departments there was at the present a scarcity of applicants who had passed successful examinations, and they were at a loss to fill some of the places. Appointments were being made daily by the various departments, but he did not see that any great sweep had been made, or that many heads had been taken off. Those who complained most of the failure to slaughter the appointees by wholesale would eventually see the benefits of the system and applaud it. 'Bishop' Oberly, he thought, would make a very conservative commissioner, notwithstanding his active party affiliations in Illinois."

VERY COMPLIMENTARY.

The Grand Jurors Pay Their Respects to the Jail and County Asylum.

The grand jurors, composed of six representative citizens, sent these communications to Judge O'Rourke yesterday:

To Hon. E. O'Rourke, Judge:

The grand jury respectfully report that they have visited the jail of Allen county and found everything in and about that institution in good order. The prison fare is good and wholesome, the sanitary condition of prisoners well looked after, the jail safe as a place for confinement of prisoners, and in short, so far as we could see, we found much to praise and nothing to condemn in the management of this institution. We think the jail is well managed in all respects.

M. Cox, Foreman.

To Hon. E. O'Rourke, Judge:

The grand jury would respectfully report that we have personally visited the county asylum and found the superintendent absent. We were, however, shown over and about the institution and freely allowed access to all parts thereof. We report that we found everything neat, clean and in excellent condition. We were over the farm and examined the stock building and crops. We are pleased to report that all about it is in good order and the crops thereon look very fine. In short we are well pleased with the management of this important public institution.

M. Cox, Foreman.

A Fair Correction.

Lagrange county will have two sets of delegates to the congressional convention. Andy Ellison's county convention met and selected delegates. The regular county convention has been called to meet in Lagrange to-morrow, by Chairman John Kimmel. The Lagrange county democrats will all support the regular congressional nominee.

If the exchange editor ever runs across the above item again he will let it alone. There are hundreds of democrats here.

ready to prove that the first convention was the regular democratic affair and that Mr. Kimmel's is only a side show. Two communications are at hand to assert that Mr. Kimmel is not the regular democratic committeeman and has no authority to call a convention to-day. THE SENTINEL takes no sides in this dispute.

CRIMINAL.

Sinners Sentenced and Two More Arrested.

Doctor Selover, the sanctimonious express driver, was arrested to-day on a grand jury indictment charging him with cruelty to his horse. He gave bond and is at large. Henry Pantlind was arrested this morning on a charge of fornication. He gave security for his appearance when wanted.

Jimmy Meehan was arraigned before Judge O'Rourke for petit larceny. He was sent to jail for twenty days. Fred Madden, who was charged similarly, was let go on promise of good behavior. Billy Time and Ed. Monahan were fined $5 each and given twenty days in jail for riot. They stole cigars from Ehle and otherwise behaved badly.

THE WAY TO CHURCH.

Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy.

You are invited to attend the Easter service to-morrow at the Simpson M. E. church. Sabbath school at 2:30 p. m.

An invitation is given to all to attend the gospel and song service at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sabbath afternoon, at 3:30 standard.

You are invited to Grace Reformed church, East Washington street. Morning topic, "Easter Thoughts." Evening subject, "The Grace of Meekness." Come, you are welcome.

Trinity church, Rev. W. N. Webb, pastor. Easter day, April 25. Order of services: 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 10:45 a. m., sermon and holy communion; 7:30 p. m., Sunday school celebration. A beautiful and striking object lesson will be one of the attractions at this service. All are cordially invited.

At the Cathedral to-morrow—Easter Sunday—the Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger will pontificate, and will be attended by all the clergy of his household as is customary in the ritual of the Catholic church on great festivals. The church and altars will be richly decorated and brilliantly illuminated. The following selections will be sung by the choir: "Kyrie," by Gounod; "Gloria," by Gounod; "Veni Sancte Spiritus," by Fletow; "Credo," by Gounod; Offertory—"Regina Coele," by Cherubini; "Sanctus," by Gounod; "Benedictus," by Gounod; "Agnus Dei," by Gounod. The choir has carefully rehearsed the mass and the musical productions will be of an exceptionally fine order. Mr. John Mohr, jr., will preside at the organ and Professor Noll will be choir director. The services begin at 10:30 a. m. At the vesper services the choir will render Mercadante's "Magnificat," Cherubini's "Regina Coeli," Orselli's "O Salutaris," Goebe's "Tantum Ergo."

BIG BILLS.

T. E. Ellison Gets $6,000 Fee in the Little River Ditch.

Judge Haynes allowed the bills in the Little River ditch case yesterday. T. E. Ellison put in a claim for $6,000 for legal services and getting up the petition. This was allowed. Morris & Barrett, who were also attorneys in the ditch case for the petitioners, put in a bill for $1,000. Mr. Ellison got another allowance of $27.25 for expenses at Huntington, and Brayan, Spencer, Kaufman and Brayan, attorneys in the case, asked for and received $250. There were other claims, ranging from a hundred dollars down. Mr. Ellison's fee is the largest ever recorded here, and the people along the line of the Little River ditch must pay it.

CHICAGO, April 24.—President Newell, of the Lake Shore, says there was no agreement to remove objectionable switchmen; that the strikers made a complete surrender in view of the penalties they would incur by carrying on their method of interfering with business.

THE STRIKES FIGURED UP.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—It is estimated by Joseph D. Weeks, labor statistician, that there are now 762 strikes in progress in this country, and that the number of men idle in consequence, is 128,262. Mr. Weeks' report says: "As to wages lost, it appears that 84,779 employees lost $3,711,097. This would be at the rate of $57 each. As the entire number of employees estimated was 123,186, the total loss of wages would be $13,002,866, which would have been received had the works run constantly."

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—Telegrams from Washington, Pa., reports that the Thayer well which started off at a 1,400 barrel per day rate is doing 56 barrels an hour to-day.

In the habeas corpus case of Cora Lee, charged with complicity in the murder of Mrs. Graham, Judge Wallace, at Bolivar, Mo., Friday admitted her to bail in $5,000. Judge Baker, it is stated, will provide the bonds.

Miss Francis B. Folson, who, it is alleged, will be married to President Cleveland in June, will sail for home May 18, an announcement which has revived in the east the story of orange blossoms in the white house.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. Shutt was up at Avilla to-day.

Mary Lohmeyer sues Ransom E. French to quit title.

Rhea Levisay sues Frederick Barrett sues on a note for $400.

The Equitable Insurance company Phillip Kinze on a foreclosure.

A. C. F. Weichman was at Kendallville to-day. Mr. Weichman will run for county treasurer.

Ernest Wicking, of Bluffton, passed through the city yesterday en route to Germany to see his relatives.

W. S. Bash has taken out a permit to erect a two-story brick house on lot 208 Rockhill's addition, at a cost of $2,500.

Fred. Hollenbeck will go to Europe with his wife on a three months visit, after he quits as Wabash baggage master, May 1.

The Deubar Watch Case company is getting a good deal of free advertising by making proposals to locate in a hundred different cities.

The Catholic Knights of St. John run an excursion to Cincinnati, June 26. The Arion society goes to Milwaukee about the same time.

James and Fred Horstmeier, who live near the organ factory, were arrested by Constable Cook, for fishing with a net. Justice France fined them.

John Snyder and Mary Armstrong, Commodore Wood and Elizabeth Marrow have been licensed to wed. Commodore is not known to fame.

Mr. C. I. Centlivre, the great brewer, has a page ad. in THE SENTINEL to-day. This institution ranks with the best in the land, and his announcements will startle the trade. See if it don't.

James and Sarah Mayhew, who live out on the St. Joe road, will be arrested for keeping still on their lot in Geocsville. Mrs. Mayhew is at the point of death and cannot come in, but James will be fined.

George Pitter was arrested to-day for hugging his lovely cousin, from Garrett, and will have a hearing next Friday before Esquire Ryan. Mrs. Weaver is an exquisite creature, and George was justified in squeezing her a little bit.

Rufus A. Evans, of the Lake Shore freight office, has accepted the Fort Wayne agency for the Equitable Life Assurance society of New York. Mr. Buck, who for many years has represented the society at this place, will represent the society at Indianapolis.

Will P. Gordon, the depot express agent, received a carrier pigeon from East Liberty, Ohio, last night, with instructions to let it go this morning. He let it fly at 8 o'clock, and after a circle or two, the pretty blue bird made a bee line for East Liberty. Quite a crowd witnessed its departure.

Hon. W. C. Colerick announces himself elsewhere as a candidate for congress. At the bar, on the bench and in the halls of congress Mr. Colerick has distinguished himself. Every elevation won new laurels for us fair and brilliant man as Indiana can boast of, and his record as a democrat is as old as he is.

Moody is still in the south doing much good. He has joined the Christian people of that section together as one body. He has persuaded them to throw away their creeds and go to work for Christ. He says a Christian has no use for a creed. He should believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and feel at home wherever Christians dwell.

Mr. P. Parker, the gas well man, of Findlay, Ohio, was in the city this morning, having returned with Hon. R. C. Bell from Eaton, where he made an examination of the gas well at that place. He thinks it will be a good paying well. While here he made an examination of the dirt taken from the artesian well. At a depth of 1,000 feet he discovered some oil bearing rock, though the surroundings are not very encouraging for gas.

He thinks it is worth experimenting with, and advises that a glycerine cartridge be exploded at the depth where the oil bearing rock is found. He says if there is any gas there it will then make its appearance. He thinks Eastern Indiana and Western Ohio will in time be the greatest oil producing country in the United States.

City Democratic Primaries.

At a meeting of the democratic city central committee it was decided that the primaries be held at the usual voting places on May 1, 1886, from 4 to 7 o'clock in the afternoon for the nomination of one councilman in each ward, and to nominate on water works trustees.

A HEROIC TRAMP.

Saves Two Hundred People From an Awful Fate.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 24.—An unknown tramp saved the night express on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, and nearly two hundred passengers, from an awful fate, last night, by heroism and presence of mind. He was walking up the track on a mountain delfle, when he found a large steer wedged in a cattle guard on the track in such a way that it would certainly have wrecked the train. The tramp heard the night express thundering through the mountains. He lighted a torch and stopped it just before reaching the obstruction. He was handsomely rewarded.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

A Farmer's Quarrel Results in a Poul Murder.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BLANCHETOWN, O., April 24.—Thomas Bowman was murdered last evening by Henry Kregler, near Middleboro, eight miles from here. They were neighbors. Yesterday Bowman had Kregler arrested for destroying a fence. After an examination before a justice they started home, Kregler ahead. He hid in a clump of bushes by the roadside, and when Bowman and his son came along, he fired four bullets into his body, one entering the heart and killing him instantly. Bowman's son grappled with Kregler, but was struck with the pistol and badly hurt. Kregler escaped.

High Rates.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 24.—The Union Pacific railway officials have issued a circular announcing an advance in freight rates to 50 per cent. of the old tariff.

CAUGHT UP.

Items Gathered by Induction Along the Wabash.

The Wabash has a contract to haul two thousand loads of coal for the Baltimore and Ohio from Indianapolis to Auburn Junction. As the arrangement was made but recently it does not indicate that the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and Wabash will change interests very soon.

George W. Stevens is a hard man to interview. He is pleasant, talks readily, but gives away no secrets, and would make his mark in the political field. One of these days he will be president of the Wabash or some other large railroad, mark the prediction.

The court has decided that the two million bonds on the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago are legal, which places the road nearly in the control of the Wabash. The cutting bonds will now be of much value to whoever wishes to own the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago.

Boycotting Sunday Papers.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—The city ministers, headed by Bishop Bedell, of the Episcopal church, are preparing to boycott the Sunday secular newspapers. Confidential circulars have been issued to clergymen, and all have been urged to join the movement and denounce Sunday papers from their pulpits on May 2.

The New York Times says: "Josely played as his last number the 'Last Concerto No. 2, one of the most difficult and therefore most rarely heard compositions of the great master. Nothing more astonishing as an exhibition of pianism has been heard in this country, not excepting the most astonishing performances of Rubenstein and von Bulow."

The New Green Houses are open to visitors every Sunday.

THE MARKETS.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Wheat, depressed, 40c lower, moderate business. No. 2 red May, 93@93 1/2. Corn, higher, fairly active. 41@47 1/2. Oats, dull, weak, 38@46.

CHICAGO MARKET.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1886.

THE CITY.

This is Holy Saturday.

It's time to darn up the moth holes in hammocks.

The museum of anatomy closes its engagement here to-night.

Hon. A. H. Hamilton is at New York
City, accompanied by his daughter.

Mr. W. D. Page and party have returned from a pleasant stay at Rome City.

Miss Chapin, of Fort Wayne, was at LaOito Tuesday to organize a class in instrumental music.

Rev. Sam Jones is to appear at the Island Park Assembly platform, August 4th, temperance day.

The fare to the I. O. O. F. celebration
at Wabash, Monday, has been reduced to $1.50 for the round trip.

"Miss Lillie Henry, a Fort Wayne
society lady, was in town over Sunday,"
says the Winchester Democrat.

Col. C. A. Zollinger returned to Indianapolis at 8 o'clock last evening. The colonel shows the marks of hard work.

Nick Grew, of Fort Wayne, has purchased and taken possession of the Bricker property, south of Swan, Ind., this week.

County Auditor Greibell sues Margaret
and Thomas Kelly on a school fund foreclosure, or $800. Coombs, Bell & Morris are the attorneys.

Congressman Lowry sends THE SEN-TINEL a copy of the speech of Senator Voorhees on the "Right and Duty of the President to Make Removals from Office."

Dr. A. J. Ranch electioneers in the pure Quaker tongue. He shakes the farmer's hand in the robust Quaker fashion and adds "How art thee and thine."

Fred Bineker for fishing with a dip
net was fined $10 and costs by Justice France. It is getting rather costly to violate the fish law, besides, a man who uses a seine or dip net is too small to live in this community.

Dr. J. M. Dimen tells us the name of the deformed piddler, killed on the Pittsburg road night before last, is Frank Meyers. He came from Detroit and his mangled remains will be interred at Lindenwood in Potter's field. He has no friends.

Mr. Frank H. Wolke has tendered his resignation as bookkeeper for O. L.
Centivire, and Ed Frauks succeeds him.
Mr. Wolke will devote his time to the manufacture of the washing machine in which he and Fred C. Boltz are interested and in which there is a fortune or two.

Eli Snyder, a sporting man, who is interested in a "game" here, was forty years old yesterday, and went to Warsaw to observe the event. The Times of that place says he was serenaded by the Warsaw band and gave a reception, not forgetting to give the printers a box of Havanos.

Rev. H. A. Hellbake, of Columbia City,
has been appointed by Right Rev.
Bishop Dwenger, of Fort Wayne, to the pastorate at Remington, Jasper county.
He will be succeeded at Columbia City
by Rev. A. M. Elloring, who has been attending Warsaw and Pierceton. Arcola having become vacant by the death
of Father Twigg, will be in charge of Rev. J. A. Welein.

It may interest our busy housewives
at this season to know that the Relief
union keep at their room, 34 West Main street, a list of names and addresses of women who want house cleaning
and a day's work to do.
The rooms are open daily from 10
a. m. till noon, where Mrs. Eckles who is in charge will gladly give any information to those desiring such service.

The city council meets in regular session next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dr. McGraw, of Toledo, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Keil, of West Superior street.

Hon. Andy Ellison, of Lagrange, was in the city last evening. Mr. Ellison is en route to Kentucky, his new home.

It will cost John Fleischman $18 for fishing with a dip-net at Esmond's dam.
Fleischman stayed Justice Ryan's judgment, but will have to settle later.

The sheriff of Berrien county, Mich.,
wrote that he would be here last Friday
after John W. Smith, the Huntington bigamist, but failed to come. Smith
could be prosecuted in Michigan.

Dr. J. S. Seaton, the revenue collector, is notifying interested persons to make
return to Uncle Sam of their special tax.
If this is not done before April 30, he must levy a penalty of 50 per cent.

"Mr. Thomas Foley, train dispatcher of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway company, at Fort Wayne,
was in the city last Sunday, the guest of a friend," says the Van Wert Bulletin.

Supt. George W. Stevens said, yesterday, that the Wabash company had resolved to build an elevator at Hurling-
ton. It will be placed a little east of the burned building, and will be about the same size.

Willie Bryant, a boy aged fourteen years, small of stature, who resides at 34 Summit street, disappeared Monday morning. Bryant, let's see. He may be employed at the Wayne township assessor's office.

"Ben Bell, a fat conductor on the Nickel Plate railway from Bellevue to Fort Wayne, is a very genial and accommodating gentleman, as all will concede
who ride on his train," says the Paulding Democrat.

The New York Sun devotes a half column editorial to satisfactorily prove that Judge Holman should be returned to congress from Indiana. The judge is an uncle of Hon. A. H. and Montgomery
Hamilton, of this city.

United States Marshal Hawkins, of this district, must summon witnesses in rebuttal of the testimony offered by Senator Weir and others, from LaPorte, against him at Washington. His confirmation is now regarded as doubtful.

"This morning, P. H. Zahn sold a fine buggy to Dr. Emery Stults, of Fort Wayne. Mr. Zahn has built up a fine trade and it speaks well for him that he sells in our neighboring towns and cities. The buggy was shipped to Fort Wayne to-day," says the Huntington Herald.

"Messdames D. A. Purviance and E.
K. Alpaugh made a visit to Fort Wayne
to-day.—Harry Medsker, the Fort Wayne confectioner, called on his friends
here this morning.—Dr. Emery Stults, of Fort Wayne, who has been here a day
or two, returned home on the noon train
to-day," says the Huntington Herald.

The Warsaw Times, is urging that city to celebrate the Fourth of July with a sham naval battle on the lake adjoining the city. The fight between the Kearsarge and the Alabama is suggested
for a model, as good descriptions of it have been given recently. Fort Wayne people talk of running an excursion up
there then.

Petitions from all along the line of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad pour in to Superintendent Law, requesting that official to again put on the accommodation trains that a few months
since ran between Crestline and Fort Wayne. The trains were a great convenience to the patrons of the road all along the line.

The Northern Indiana Teachers' association will meet at Lake Maxemuckee, July 30 and 31, and August 1. A program has been arranged that includes a number of papers from prominent educators, and the meeting of the association promises to be an unusually interesting one. Many of the teachers of this city will attend the meeting of the association.

Judge Haynes, of Portland, concluded
the consideration of the Little river ditch yesterday by appointing Mr. Ed. Ely, of St. Joe township, superintendent of construction on the big drain. Mr. Ely will collect the assessments and make payments to contractors. It is expected that the letting of contracts will occur in July. The estimated benefits of the ditch amount to $300,000.

Mrs. Wells, of Westminster seminary,
Miss Anna Lowry and Miss Sophie Keil,
returned from Indianapolis last evening,
where they attended the meeting of the Woman's Presbyterian Missionary convention of the northwest. Mrs. Clark,
of Franklin, made the report for Indiana.
During the year there have been five societies and four Sunday schools newly organized, but a number of new ones
had not been reported. The eight synodical secretaries reported that 486 of
the subscribers to the foreign missions, 446 to woman's work, and 279 to children's work were found in the state. Six of the presbyteries reported an increase in collections during the year, Muncie showing an increase of 20 per cent.,
while New Albany and Indianapolis had fallen off. The total collections for the year were $9,257.26, an increase of $223
over the last year.

The music of the lawn mower is heard
in the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Link returned home
from Bluffton this morning.

County Recorder McDowell and Adm'n
Hall, of Blington, are in the city.

The parade of Kearsand's minstrels will take place at 11:30 o'clock Monday morning.

The city market will be open May 1.
Market Master Ropa will lease stalls
there.

The performance at the Academy tonight begins sharp at ten minutes before 8 o'clock.

Byron Hattersley has purchased a fine
rounder and will hold the reins over the fleece steed.

Henry Meyer, truckman at the Pittsburg depot, will to-morrow wed Miss Mary Petzold.

Justice Scarlet is located in his old
office on Calhoun street and Justice
Harding holds forth over the postoffice.

The officers and teachers of the three Presbyterian Sabbath schools meet this evening at the Second Presbyterian church.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL,
are as follows: Clearing, slightly cooler weather.

The Leonzo brothers give their last performance at the Academy to-night,
appearing in "The Hunter's Dogs"
which was given at the matinee this afternoon with great success.

"Kiser's gang of painters have completed their work here and this week
go to Fort Wayne, where the shops of the company are to be 'rejuvenated,'"
says the Huntington News-Express.

Mrs. Gottlieb Brudi, of Adams township, who was so brutally assaulted by a tramp, is lying at the point of death.
The last sacraments of the Catholic church were administered to her yesterday.

Mrs. Bonder, mother-in-law of John
Work, of the gas works, died last night
at her home, 275 East Washington street. She was sixty years of age and will be buried Monday, at 9 a. m., from the Cathedral.

The passenger rates to California are gradually advancing and the freight rates will probably be restored to tariff
on Monday next. The lines concerned
begin to talk once more of the reorganization of the Trans-continental pool.

City Clerk Rockhill has notified all interested people to remove bodies from the Broadway cemetery. Quite a number have replied to bury the headstones
under ground and leave the ashes rest.
One of these requests came from Lizzie
B. Read, of Algona, Iowa, and will be granted.

The council committee on parks looked over the public domain yesterday and decided to at once beautify the McCon-
loch park and later decorate the property around the pumping house and reservoir. An effort will be made to secure for park purposes the triangular strip of ground in front of W. D. Page's residence, in the east end.

The full program of the Northern Indiana Editorial association is now published. It differs not from the outline
given in THE SENTINEL some time ago.
These numbers are of interest here:
"The Local Paper of the Future," Theron P. Keator, of the Fort Wayne Gazette. "The Duty of the Public to the Press," Col. I. B. McDonald, of the Fort Wayne Journal.

Wallace King, the phenomenal tenor,
is with Kearsand's minstrels; also, Billy Wilson, the young comedian; Ed.
Johnson, the baritone, and numerous other favorites. The singing of the double sextette is highly commended.
The Zouave drill and the black eleg are also interesting features. They will undoubtedly give as fine a performance as has ever been seen in Fort Wayne.

May 12 and 13 the board of bishops of the United Brethren church will meet for a conference at Roanoke, just west of the city a few miles. There are six active bishops in the church, and Bishop Glossbrenner, who for forty years has held the office, and has been made a bishop emeritus, and all will be present,
with the exception of Bishop Flickinger,
who is now in Europe. The meeting of the Woman's Missionary board of the United Brethren church of the United States, convenes at Huntington May 19
and 20. Fort Wayne will be represented at both meetings.

A question of great interest to local ticket brokers arises from the sale of the Wabash next Monday. During the great rate war of 1880, $250,000 worth of tickets were issued by the Wabash company. The tickets were bought up with avidity, $10,000 alone going to Toledo.
After the war the tickets, which had been held by the scalpers, were redeemed
by the company at $4.70. The brokers held out for the full rate, $9.50, which was refused. A short time after the Wabash went into the hands of a receiver, and it was decided for this reason the tickets were not redeemable.
The tickets were repudiated, and are still on the market, and the question arises,
"Are the tickets good when the road is sold?"

EGGSACTLY.

Easter and the Legends That Make the Day Remarkable—The Notable Dates of the Occasion.

Easter Sunday is to-morrow, the latest date it can come on again for a century. In the Christian churches it is a day of rejoicing, to commemorate the resurrection of Christ. It is regarded as an occasion for sinners to return to grace and make peace with God. The church services are marked with great solemnity and devotion.

Another feature is the custom of presented colored eggs, styled pasch or pace eggs. The Easter eggs or pasch eggs are symbolical of creation, or the recreation of spring. The practice of presenting eggs at Easter is allusion to the Jews, Egyptians and Hindus. Christians adopted the custom to symbolize the resurrection, and they color the eggs red
in allusion to the blood of their redemption. There is a tradition, also, that the world was hatched or created at Easter tide.

This year Easter falls on April 25, or nearly a month after the beginning of the second quarter of the year. Such a case has not happened in this century,
and will not occur again. In the next century, the twentieth, Easter will fall on April 25 in 1943. If we turn back to previous centuries, we find that such a late date for Easter occurs only once in each century, that is, 1731, 1766, 1845, 1451; the fourteenth century goes without such a late date; 1204, 1103, 1014, 919. The earliest date for Easter,
March 22, has occurred only once
in this century, in 1818, and it will not recur before A. D. 2000. The earliest day for Easter has occurred in 1761, 1693, 1598 and 1573, 1478, and 1383; the thirteenth century is passed over; 1136, 1011, 946. It is interesting to note how Easter will distribute itself up to A. D.
2000. In the present century Easter will fall only twice more in March, on the 29th, in 1891, and on the 25th, in 1894. Of the remaining twelve years of this century, five Easter days fall in the first week in April (in 1888, on April 1;
1893 and 1899 on April 2, 1890 on April 5, 1890 on April 6), and three in the second week (in 1887 and 1898 on April 10, and in 1895 on April 14), and four in the third week (in 1900 on April 15, 1893
on April 17, 1877 on April 18, 1889 on April 21). As indicated above, the last week in April, with the exception of 1886, is not represented again in this century by an Easter day.

Colerick is a Candidate for Congress.

To the Democratic Voters of Allen County:
I am a candidate for congress, and my name will be presented to the democratic congressional convention, to be held at Auburn, May 13. It will be gratifying to me if my friends in the different wards and townships attend the meetings to be held on Saturday, May 1, and use their influence in securing the selection of delegates to the congress-sional convention who will favor my nomination.

WALPOLE G. COLERICK.

AH THERE, THERON.
Editor Mitchell on His 3,000
Petition.

Fort Wayne Dispatch.
The Congressional Record for April 10th, 1886, says Senator Harrison presented the petition of ten officers and members of the Fort Wayne assemblies of the Knights of Labor in favor of the arbitration bill. The Fort Wayne Gazette says
the petition had 3,000 signatures, but then the Gazette's figures are often decidedly peculiar. The great majority of the Knights of Labor of Fort Wayne
take no more stock in the arbitration
bill than they do in Senator Harrison.

You are bound to get your foot into

To-morrow's issue will be a notable number. A large engraving of the new First Presbyterian church, with a history of the congregation; a magnificently illustrated Easter article, superbly illustrated society and dramatic deportments, illustrated articles by Bill Nye and the humorist of the Detroit Free Press. The "Growler" will have a page. Full report by special reporters of the Manroeville prize fight and an unnum-bered amount of interesting local matters will make this a number one that every citizen of Fort Wayne should have. Orders for extra copies are already over 2,000
above the ordinary edition. Advertisers will take notice. Members and friends of the First church who desire this son-
venir should leave orders for extra copies
early.

SOLDIERS ORGANIZE.

Another Tri-State Veteran Association Incorporated.

This morning the Tri-State Veteran
association filed articles of incorporation with County Recorder Heller. The organization applies to Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, and is open to all union soldiers and sailors on the payment of an annual fee of 50 cents. The society is to give a reunion annually in one of the states named. No officer gets pay but the secretary and treasurer. The society is incorporated to oppose Dr. Young's veteran association. The incorporators are Capt. Scott Swann, Col. Tom Sullivan, Capt. James Harper, and Col. C. A.
Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, and Capt.
John E. Tyrrell, of Jackson, Mich.

Of Camille Mouri the St. Paul's Dispatch says: "She possesses one of the most beautiful, soft and sympathetic voices it has ever been our fortune to hear, and her style of delivery and general artistic training are fully equal to the gifts with which nature has so magnificently endowed her. She divided the honors with Jossely."
